LEG-4-1

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Intelligence Community Staff
Chief, Community Counterintelligence Staff
NSSD-2/82 Study Director

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Response to NSSD-2/82

One of the things we are going to have to do with the response to NSSD-2/82 is to give the policymakers a fix on the size of the overall US Government counterintelligence effort and of the people applied to dealing with it in each agency and for each significant function. Without that, there is nothing to come to grips with in seeking to measure how and to what extent the capabilities need to be enhanced. I recognize the need for caution to developing priorities, but there is a need for developing some kind of a roadmap on where one would start in improving the overall capabilities for dealing with the situation.
